St. Thomas typifies a prosperous Caribbean island with postcard images of delightful shops, winding streets, incredible beaches and old world charm. The island abounds with natural beauty, and the hilly terrain offers lookout points with spectacular views of the crystal clear water and the neighboring U.S. and British Virgin Islands. Its picturesque harbor is the liveliest and arguably the biggest shopping mecca in the Caribbean. Delighted visitors are sure to find an incredible variety of gemstones, jewelry, watches, liquor, cosmetics, perfumes, linens, cameras, electronics, fine crystal, china, linens...the list goes on and on. Note: Be sure to look both ways when crossing the streets as the locals drive on the left side of the road.

HOW TO GET DOWNTOWN

Ship will be docked either in Havensight on the east, or Crown Bay on the west side of the island. Both piers have their own complex of shops, restaurants and bars. To head into town, just exit the ship, hop into one of the brightly colored jeeps, and ask to go to Emancipation Square, which is just a short 5 min drive away.

CHANEL

Quotes from Coco Chanel

"A woman has the age she deserves."

"Nature gives you the face you have at 20; it is up to you to merit the face you have at 50."

"Luxury must be comfortable, otherwise it is not luxury."

"Fashion is like a revolution—it only enters our lives after it has gone down in the streets."

Chanel is one of today's best known and most highly sought-after fashion brands, and has been one practically since it was founded by Coco (Gabrielle) Chanel in 1909. Her post-World War I look gained attention, as she brought on modernism in fashion through beaded dresses in the twenties, the infamous little black dress, as well as a two- or three-piece suit, which is still a signature Chanel look. By 1921 she introduced Chanel No. 5, and was once quoted as saying "A woman who doesn't wear perfume has no future." No. 5 went on to become one of the best-selling fragrances of all time.

Ultimately Chanel will always be known for their fashion label, however after the success of the line of fragrances such as Chanel No. 5 it was only a matter of time before Chanel moved into a range of designer make up. Onboard Princess at Essence you will find an extensive collection of Chanel make up and fragrances.

Port Guide

ST. THOMAS at a glance

Founded: While the prehistoric Ciboney people from South America lived here as early as 1500 B.C., St. Thomas was discovered by Columbus on his second voyage and was established as a trading post by the Dutch West India Company in 1657.

Region: An unincorporated district, St. Thomas is part of the United States Virgin Islands and is located in the eastern Caribbean, just east of Haiti. It's just 13 miles long by 4 miles wide.

Population: 51,634 (est. 2010)

Climate: The weather is close to perfect, with year-round temperatures ranging from 73°F to 89°F, depending on the breezes. Scuba season runs April to August, when the water is clearer. Tourist season runs December to May.

Language: English

Currency: U.S. Dollar (USD). Credit cards are widely accepted.

THE BEST OF ST. THOMAS

Don't miss out on the top Points of Interest in this port —
 Book a Princess Excursion and experience them for yourself!

1 Magens Bay

One of the world's best beaches as selected by National Geographic magazine.

2 Outdoor Adventure

Nature lovers and thrill seekers will enjoy St. Thomas's diverse landscapes, which offer a variety of outdoor adventures — from zipline, kayaking down a underwater scooter excursion.

3 Coral World

This 4.5-acre marine park offers an underwater observatory with 360-degree views of fish and other sea creatures, and the opportunity to pet sharks and hand feed stingrays.

4 Mountain Top

This totally rebuilt mecca on top of a mountain, features souvenir shopping and excellent views of St. Thomas and neighboring islands. It is considered to be the birthplace of the banana daiquiri.

5 Skyride to Paradise Point

The St. Thomas Skyride to Paradise Point, a modern aerial cable car, offers the best sightseeing in the Virgin Islands. The Skyride is about seven minute ride to the top Paradise Point, located 700 feet above sea level. Once you're up there, where on your own, you'll enjoy boutiques, a bar featuring the famous Bailey's Bushwhacker drink, a grill for lunch and spectacular views of cruise ships.

Note: Passengers must be able to climb approx. 35 stairs to the top of the loading deck.

6 St. John

The smallest of the U.S. Virgin Islands is only a 30-minute ferry ride away. Two thirds of the island is a national park. Annaberg Sugar Plantation Ruins and Trunk Bay are two favorite sights.

7 Snorkeling & Diving

The island's underwater world is beautifully unveiled to both snorkelers and divers, exhibiting sunken boat wrecks, breathtaking coral reefs and a colorful spectrum of marine life.

8 British Virgin Islands

Virgin Gorda and Tortola are just two of several islands under British rule. Both are laid back and scenic with attractions like The Baths and swimming with the dolphins.

Explore St. Thomas with a Princess
 Shore Excursion. Visit the Tour Office for more information.

ST. THOMAS

Paradise

---

This warm, welcoming island has two personalities: one part tranquil oasis of relaxing cruises, scenic drives and leisurely strolls; and another part adrenaline pumping zip lines, scuba dives and kayaking. Whether you prefer to kick back or kick into high gear, this fantasy island is greater than the sum of its parts.

Unclaimed paradise

It may be hard to believe but St. Thomas' powdery white beaches, crystalline waters and lush vegetation made so little an impression upon Columbus when he landed here in 1493 that he didn't even stake a claim. Spain's loss was pirate's gain and the island soon became a haven for notorious buccaneers.

Seizing the opportunity to establish a trade route in the Americas, agents of the Dutch West India Company founded the first settlement in 1672.

Reminders of Dutch colonization are peppered across the island. Feel the centuries unfold as island tours showcase stunning examples such as lovely manor houses listed in the National Register of Historic Places.

In the 17th century, the islands were divided into two territorial units, one English and the other Danish; in 1917, the U.S. purchased the Danish half. Today, tourists have replaced pirates and adventures across the island and under the sea would make Columbus enviable.

Aqua culture

The holy trinity of sand, surf and sun are worshipped here with activities that range from family-friendly getaways to romantic escapes.

There are as many beaches that offer relaxation as there are fish in the sea. Swim in the crystalline waters or stretch out and wiggle your toes in the snow-white sands of Magens Bay, hailed as one of the top 10 beaches in the world by National Geographic magazine. Or cruise over to St. John and luxuriate on the sands of Trunk Bay or Honeymoon Beach.

Looking for encounters with local wildlife? Swim, snorkel and scuba among an ocean full of fish or interact with sea lions at Coral World Ocean Park. Want to swim with a dolphin? Then head over to Tortola Island.

For family-sized activities, check out Turtle Cove on Buck Island. But don't let the kids have all the fun. Hop aboard a catamaran and let champagne and relaxing music take you into a world beyond relaxation and romance.

The view from Skyline Drive looking across the town of Charlotte Amalie

Land rovers

Water sports is just one of the many reasons outdoor enthusiasts flock here. There's plenty for landlubbers to enjoy, too.

If you thrive on outdoor adventure then get ready to buckle in, latch on and take off on a gravity-defying, zip lining tour. Marvel at the dramatic views as you zip across the treetops.

A more leisurely way to fly sky high is aboard the St. Thomas Skyride, a modern aerial cable car that rises 700 feet above sea level and glides up to Paradise Point.

For the best of land and sea, the excursion to the Mangrove Lagoon Wildlife Sanctuary and Marine Preserve offers kayaking, snorkeling and hiking while The Baths on Virgin Gorda is a wonderland of rock formations and intriguing sea caves.

The dry way to see the sea

Experience a splashy array of fish, corals, and sea sponges without getting wet.

View the coral gardens surrounding Coki Point from inside the Nautilus semi-submarine, a surface vessel with viewing windows eight feet below the waterline.

Drive under the Caribbean Sea in a BOSS, Breathing Observation Submersible Scooter, for an up close look at the wonders below the surface.

Cruise through the calm harbor waters of Charlotte Amalie aboard the Kon Tiki. With steel drums playing and tropical punch in hand, gaze through the glass viewing boxes while learning the island's pirate history.

Whether you're a thrill seeker or prefer to observe from a relaxing spot on the beach, or you like to indulge in sightseeing or have an energetic family to entertain—St. Thomas' multiple personalities offer the perfect vacation destination.

DID YOU KNOW?

Local cuisine

After centuries of European and African influences, St. Thomas is a melting pot of culinary delights. Pumpkin fritters, kallaloo (similar to gumbo), johnnycakes, and beans and rice are just a few tasty examples. Typical island fare such as snapper, grouper, yellowtail and tuna are fresh and delicious. You can't go wrong with exotic fruits that mimic the colors of the rainbow: mangoes, papaya, passion fruit, guava and pineapple.

On a sweet note

By the early 18th century, sugarcane was so popular and profitable an export that the tiny island of St. John had 25 active sugar producing factories. Cruises to the island include a stop at Annaberg Sugar Mill, whose ruins include a church, windmill tower, horse mill, living quarters and a dungeon.

Step right this way

Charlotte Amalie's famed 99 Steps, which connect the upper and lower parts of town, actually contains 103 steps.

First impression

The 19th-century Impressionist painter Camille Pissarro was born in St. Thomas in 1830 and moved to France when he was 12.

Native tongue

During the 18th and 19th centuries Dutch was the dominant language.

Avast, they be pirates!

Blackbeard wasn't the only pirate to seek refuge on St. Thomas—Bluebeard was a frequent visitor, too.

Fantasy islands

The Virgin Islands are the western island group of the Leeward Islands and includes St. Thomas, St. Croix, St. John, and Water Island.

Sacred name

Christopher Columbus named the islands after the epic and tragic legend of St. Ursula, a Christian saint, and the 11,000 martyred virgins.

Mountain high

1,277-foot-tall Bordeaux Mountain on St. John is the highest summit in the Virgin Islands.

What's in a name?

The official name of the British territory is the Virgin Islands, and the official name of the U.S. territory is the Virgin Islands of the United States.

Meet the locals

Citizens of the Virgin Islands are called Virgin Islanders.

Go shopping

Head over to Main Street in Charlotte Amalie and you'll find plenty of upscale boutiques and restaurants.

Island facts

Folk music known as quelbe, a fusion of bamboula rhythms and chants, cariso songs and melodies, is the official traditional music of the Virgin Islands.

The sugar bird, recognized by its bright yellow breast, is the official bird.

The blossom of the yellow elder represents the island's official flower.

"United in Pride and Hope" is the acclaimed motto.

Tidy sum

The U.S. purchased St. Thomas for $25 million.

National holiday

Transfer Day, the official day Denmark relinquished control to the U.S. is celebrated every March 27.

Drive right

Like in the UK, drivers in the Virgin Islands travel on the left hand side of the road.

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

Shore Excursions: Passengers will meet at a specific location for each shore excursion departure. Please refer to your shore excursion tour ticket for the correct place and time. Your Shore Excursion staff or our Tour Operator will be at that location to assist you. It's recommended that you drink bottled water while in port.

STT-105: MOUNTAIN TOP, MAGENS BAY BEACH & VISTAS

You will visit: 1 4

Spend a fascinating full day delving into the best that St. Thomas has to offer, awe inspiring views, a world class beach, historical locations and fantastic shopping. Travel along scenic Skyline Drive in your open-air safari bus, take in the spectacular down island views from Mountain Top. Continue to gorgeous Magens Bay, where you'll spend approximately two hours swimming and relaxing on the powder-soft sand. Next, travel to the historic Downtown & Kongens Quarter where you'll discover the island's legacy of pirates and slavery as you peruse several National Landmark Properties and historic manor houses dating back to the late 1600s. From here, and at your leisure, start your self-guided historic walking tour down to Main Street, where you're free to shop. Meet the transportation at the designated time and return to the ship.

Tour ID	Depart	Return	Adult	Child
105A	11:30am	4:30pm	$54.95	$39.95

NOTE: Tour sequence may operate in reverse order. Your tour includes transportation from the ship and back to the ship and includes Main Street for recommended shopping. When you are finished with your free time of shopping, head back to the ship via your pre-arranged return transportation which will be via land or sea. Tour duration is approximately 4 to 6 hours depending upon your personal touring and shopping time. Wear a swimsuit and bring a towel. This tour is not suitable for wheelchairs, walkers and guest with walking difficulties. Please note that depending on which berth the ship is docked, you may be required to walk about 150 yards from the ship to the transportation.

STT-110: PARADISE POINT AERIAL RIDE & MOUNTAIN TOP

You will visit: 4 5

You can see: 1

Get a unique perspective on St. Thomas from hilltop views and from an aerial cable car. Your 3.5-hour tour begins as you board an open-air safari bus for a scenic drive to the newly renovated Mountain Top, home to the famous banana daiquiri. Take in commanding views across Magens Bay with St. John and the British Virgin Islands in the distance. Next, travel along Skyline Drive for the most breathtaking vistas in the Caribbean and Atlantic Ocean. Then, board the St. Thomas Skyride, a modern aerial cable car to Paradise Point. It's an eight-minute ride to the top, located 700 feet above sea level, where on your own, you'll enjoy stellar views, boutiques, and a bar featuring the famous Bushwhacker drink. Your tour concludes at the base of the Skyride. Your return trip back to the pier will be at your leisure and by foot.

Tour ID	Depart	Return	Adult	Child
110A	1:00pm	4:30pm	$54.95	$34.95

NOTE: Tour sequence may vary. There are steps at the base and top of the tramway. This tour is not recommended for our wheelchair guests. The ship is docked within walking distance from the Skyride ending point.

No stop at Magens Bay.

Please note that depending on which berth the ship is docked, you may be required to walk about 150 yards from the ship to the transportation.

STT-120: ST. JOHN SCENIC CRUISE, PANORAMIC DRIVE & SHOPPING

You will visit/do: 6

St. John Island, originally settled by the Arawak and Carib Indians, is affectionately referred to as the "Emerald of the Caribbean." A nine mile sun drenched tropical oasis with verdant rainforest landscapes, turquoise seas, and a tranquil atmosphere, it boasts some of the most glorious beaches and stretches of powder-soft sand in the West. St. John is a secluded paradise, the quietest of the three U.S. Virgin Islands, and two thirds of the island is part of the Virgin Island National Park. The main town is Cruz Bay, a seaside enclave with impressive harbor views and great shopping.

Tour ID	Depart	Return	Adult	Child
120A	1:30pm	6:00pm	$74.95	$39.95

NOTE: This tour is not recommended for wheelchair guests.

Please note, depending on where the ship is docked, you maybe required to walk 500 yards to the ferry.

Please note, depending on weather conditions. The boat ride can be bumpy.

STT-130: ST. THOMAS ISLAND DRIVE

You will visit/do: 4

Enjoy the highlights of St. Thomas. Sit back and relax as you travel along mountainous roads, notably Skyline Drive, which boasts idyllic views. Soon, you'll drive up a twisting, winding road to Mountain Top, birthplace of the banana daiquiri and home to a wide array of duty-free shops. Once you disembark, you'll be greeted by lively Caribbean music and never-ending vistas. Have your camera ready as you walk out onto the observation deck. Situated 1,200 feet above sea level, it's the perfect spot to capture this dazzling panorama of earth, sea and sky. Photos taken, feel free to shop before continuing on to Drake's Seat lookout, which boasts postcard worthy photos of Magens Bay, hailed as one of the top 10 beaches in the world by National Geographic magazine. On the way back to the ship, you can stop in Charlotte Amalie for independent sightseeing and return at your leisure.

Tour ID	Depart	Return	Adult	Child
130A	12:30pm	2:30pm	$44.95	$24.95

NOTE: Maximum height is 7 feet. Maximum age is 85 years.

Optional drop off downtown, guests need to make their own way back to ship.

Please note that depending on which berth the ship is docked you maybe required to walk about 150 yards from the ship to get to the transportation.

STT-145: SCENIC PANORAMIC DRIVE

You will see: 1 4

Panoramic vistas and photo opportunities abound on this brief tour of the island. You'll travel west past the airport and the University of the Virgin Islands, and up Crown Road to Mountain Top for a photo stop and chance to buy souvenirs. Mountain top affords an excellent view of Magens Bay below and the British Virgin Islands in the distance. Next is Mahogany Run, long a destination golf course for celebrities and cruise ship visitors alike. You'll continue on to Skyline Drive Lookout for breathtaking views of Charlotte Amalie. Your custom vehicle is fully equipped for limited mobility and wheelchair access.

Tour ID	Depart	Return	Adult	Child
145A	2:30pm	5:00pm	$64.95	$54.95

Note: If a guest is confined to a scooter, the maximum weight limit is 600 pounds. This tour is fully accessible. If you book this tour, once onboard you will need to let the Shore Excursion Office know if you are an able-bodied passenger. If you have a collapsible wheelchair, or a scooter so we can prepare for your needs. Wheelchair confined passengers should book STT-146. Friends or family traveling with a confined passenger should book this tour STT-145. You will travel together. Space is limited.

Please note that depending on which berth the ship is docked you maybe required to walk about 150 yards from the ship to get to the transportation.

STT-180: SKYRIDE TO PARADISE POINT

You will visit/do: 5

Up, up and away! Ride the aerial cable car up Flag Hill to Paradise Point, 700 feet above sea level. While the tour's activity level is easy, please be advised there are several steps to climb to get to the Skyride's departure point. ### STT-235: CORAL WORLD OCEAN PARK & BEACH

You will visit/do: ③

Coral World Ocean Park is coming back after sustaining two Category 5 hurricanes in two weeks. See how far the park has come in the months since Hurricanes Irma and Maria swept across St. Thomas. While the island and park have not quite returned to their pre-hurricane state, you can enjoy a scenic drive from your ship, a fun and fascinating visit to the park, and some time for lounging or swimming at Coki Beach. At the park, the friendly and knowledgeable staff will greet you and provide a guided tour. Hear what preparations were made, how they rode out the storms, the aftermath and the future plans for rebuilding and improvements. And say hello to the current residents. The Caribbean Reef Encounter, a recreated living coral reef, is still full of beautiful fish and other sea creatures. See the turtles that are safe and sound and now residing happily in new quarters. Feed stingrays while learning about the park's shark and stingray "headstart" conservation programs. On the nature trail, you will have the opportunity to feed colorful Loriekeets and view red footed tortoises. You can visit Coki Beach adjacent to the park and swim in crystal clear waters.

You will visit: ⑦

The most thrilling way to explore the aquatic world is with a BOSS, the Breathing Observation Submersible Scooter. Easy and fun to drive with no experience necessary, your 3.5-hour tour begins when you board a 60-foot custom-built dive yacht for a scenic cruise out to the crystal-clear BOSS dive site. Join the friendly, professional staff for a truly unique underwater experience. BOSS is designed to allow you to breathe normally while you drive underwater and explore the undersea world. Professionally certified dive masters will guide you along the way and point out the wonders of the Caribbean Sea. If you choose, after your ride you can do a little snorkeling or simply relax on the boat and soak up the Caribbean sun. Complimentary snorkeling equipment and a snorkel vest are provided, as are snacks and beverages, to round out this adventure. Return to port on a scenic cruise.

STT-920: DISCOVER SCUBA DIVING

You will visit: ⑦

Learn to dive in one day as you discover the beauty of St. Thomas's underwater world. After climbing aboard a 45-foot-long catamaran, you and fellow beginners will be whisked away to Buck Island Marine Sanctuary, a National Wildlife Marine Reserve that's home to an astonishing world of green sea turtles, octopus, conch, urchins, starfish, squid, and a variety of tropical reef fish. Once on the island, you'll have the full attention of a PADI certified scuba instructor who'll lead you through a brief orientation and the fundamentals in how to use the included equipment, deal with water pressure, and breath through a regulator. Once you get your feet wet diving in a pool-like body of water, you'll be ready to jump in the warm, open waters of the Caribbean. Marvel at the colorful marine life as you glide through the shallow waters to a shipwreck before returning to the dock.

Tour ID	Depart	Return	Adult	Child
920A	12:30pm	4:30pm	$149.95	$149.95

STT-930: CERTIFIED SCUBA DIVING (TWO SITES)

You will visit: ⑦

Certified divers must present their Open Water certification card to participate in this two dive sight, 3.5-hour adventure, which begins with a safety briefing. Then it's off to a Caribbean reef or Buck Island, a remote island just off the coast. Once the boat nears the dive site, your captain will tie off at the reef with a depth of about 60 feet. Don your scuba gear and follow your guide into the water. Marvel at large schools of fish swimming along the reef and the large sea fans and soft corals swaying back and forth. After resurfacing from your first dive, the crew will tell the story of a shipwreck, the subject of your next adventure. Covered in intricate corals and marine creatures, the ship's ruins are home to various sea creatures and coral. Following your second dive, you'll join the dive boat and journey back to the pier.

Tour ID	Depart	Return	Adult	Child
930A	8:00am	12:00pm	$159.95	$159.95

NOTE: Minimum age is 10 years old. Be sure to bring your swimsuit and a towel. Certified divers must present their Open Water certification card to participate.
